EDICT 2007-2

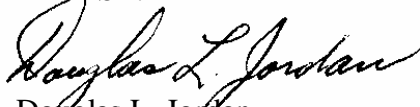

Whereas on February 21, 1997, M.E. Great Chief Reese L. Harrison, Jr. approved the recommendation of the Grand Scribe that "the Current members who form a new council and desire to transfer their membership are transferred to the new council from their present council when The Grand Council charts the new council," and

Whereas this will unfairly make both councils liable for the one time fee due for all members on December 31, 2007 for those members who are transferring to a new council,

Now, therefore, I, G. Kent Elkins, by virtue of the powers vested in me as Great Chief of the Grand Council of Knight Masons of the United States of America under Article VII, Sections 2 and 6 of the Statutes, do hereby rescind the earlier decision and order that transfers of members to newly formed councils will be recorded as of the date of institution of the new council or such later date before the end of the year that the member requests a transfer. Thus, only the new council will be liable for the fee.

Given under the seal of the Grand Council this 16th day of August AD 2007.

ATTEST:

Douglas L. Jordan
Grand Scribe

Yours in Knight Masonry,

G. Kent Elkins
Great Chief
