Sunday Night Entertainment

Mack Johnson, is a former World Wrestling Entertainment Professional Wrestler born and raised in Duson, LA, now residing in the Lafayette area. But, before ever stepping foot onto a stage to sing, he was stepping through the ropes of a Professional Wrestling Ring and butting heads with the likes of WWE Superstars such as Carlito, John Morrison, Mr. Kennedy, The Miz, Cryme Tyme and MVP, as well as many other of the current stars that you see on WWE Television today! After 5 plus years of injuries and banging up his body, Mack decided that it would be at his best interest to walk away from the sport and return home to pursue his true passion...Music! Shortly after returning home, Mack was introduced to the Legendary Hall of Fame Steel Guitarist, Peewee Whitewing. Mack got the opportunity to travel with Peewee and The Heart of Texas Band to learn the music business and sharpen his performing skills which proved quite evident when he won the "Best Vocalist" award in April of 2007 at the Kirbyville Opry in Texas. Mack has also made several appearances on Television, Radio and Newspapers doing interviews about his past wrestling career and receiving great reviews on his performances. Over the past few years Mack has gained a strong following of fans throughout various parts of the United States and the World, along with his past supporters throughout his Pro Wrestling Career. Mack is planning to record and release his long awaited debut album following this "From the Ring...To the Stage" concert in which all funds raised will be used for his official launching of studio recording to be released with the "Mack Johnson Entertainment!"
